

2. Grammar: Intensifiers

Lengua Extranjera profesional: Inglés 2 > 2. Grammar: Intensifiers

☰ So/Such, So much/many

4 / 9

Intensifiers

Introduction ●

OBJECTIVES ●

So + adjective/adv... ●

So/Such, So much... ○

Too ○

Enough ○

Very ○

▶ Exercise 1 ○

📄 Resumen y envío

So / Such

to make the meaning of an adjective, adverb or noun stronger

- I can't believe you made such a simple coding mistake.
- The app was so poorly designed that no one wanted to use it.
- I never realized that coding could be so frustrating.

- She had such an amazing idea for an app that it was immediately funded.

So much + uncountable noun + (that...)

- There's so much data to process that we need to use machine learning algorithms.
- He spends so much time coding that he forgets to take breaks.

So many + plural noun + (that...)

- There are so many programming languages to learn that it's overwhelming for beginners.
- We've encountered so many bugs in the system that we need to spend extra time fixing them.

↑ So/Such, So much/many

4 / 9

