PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE vs. PAST SIMPLE

When talking about recent events or experiences, we often start with the present perfect simple but switch to the past simple when discussing specific details.

For example:

- o PETER: I have tested the code, and it works fine. (present perfect simple)
- JOHN: Have you fixed the bug? (present perfect simple)
- o PETER: Yes, I fixed it yesterday. (past simple)

When giving details about a past event or experience, we use the past simple after introducing it with the present perfect.

For example:

o I've been to a hackathon before. The last one I went to was in San Francisco, and we developed a mobile app that won third place."
