ENOUGH

○ Before a noun

- We have enough server capacity to handle the traffic spike.

- Do we have enough RAM for the application to run smoothly?

○ In negative sentences we use (not) enough + noun

- We don't have enough user feedback to make informed decisions.

- There wasn't enough funding to support our startup.

○ Adjective/adverb + enough

- This algorithm is efficient enough to process big data sets.

- I don't think he's skilled enough to lead the development team.

○ In negative sentences we can use (not) adjective/adverb + enough

- This laptop is not powerful enough to run the latest software.

- You aren't communicating clearly enough with the design team.